A Note from the Camp Director!

THANK YOU FOR TAKING THE TIME TO INVEST IN THESE SOULS!

Be aware that the devil will drive his fiery darts right in amongst Camp Workers us just as much as he will among the kids at Camp, so be on guard that he is given on foot-hold to do such a thing! Watch your own attitudes, and your own carnality, and be ready to "cast down any imagination" (2Cor 10:5) that is against Christ and His work this week! Know that I love you all, and thank God at every chance for each of you, and have watched with amazement and joy how the Lord always takes a bunch of us nobodies, and puts this great life-changing Camp together every year!

Pray that this year's Camp is THE BEST!

Introduction and Orientation

Every meal, I will select a team to do the dishes

Refer to Rules and Point-System

No profanity allowed

No boy and girl things going on

No leaving camp

No knives

No smoking

No going behind the buildings

Every team to Come up with special songs, skits, cheers

The events of the Old Testament directly relate to the Christian life (1Cor 10:6,11)

Camp is intended to teach the kids about getting changed/transformed from being slaves of sinful habits and bad attitudes to God's peculiar people who would be like Jesus – and the Lord showed us a young man who accomplished just that – Joseph!

Counsellor Advice

Take Group Devotions VERY seriously

Use the memory verses, the suggested study scriptures and the Word Definition page to help with devotions

Talk individually with the kids about their spiritual walk with God, their salvation, and their Christian testimony

Make sure every Camper is saved and in Church faithfully!

but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able;
 but will with the temptation
 also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

Special Song #1 The Joseph Song

Young Joseph had a lot of dreams and had his plans galore
 He was his Daddy's favourite son shown by the coat he wore
 But there was something God was building in this young man's life
 But it couldn't be perfected until the time was right

Chorus

'Cause character is some-thing that may be out of style
 But something deep inside of us, needs work in every trial
 Integrity and honesty both come at quite a price
 But the benefits are worth it all, if it makes us more like Christ

Down in a pit young Joseph thought, things couldn't get much worse
 But as a slave and far from home, his life just seemed a curse
 Yet Joseph trusted that his God, was working all things right
 He'd slowly make a man of him, who'd stand through every fight
To Chorus

O! Potiphar's wife, she knew too well, how to bring this young man down
 She'd lure, and tempt, and pressurize, till Joseph dropped his crown
 "How can I do this thing", he said, "and sin against my God"
 Over sin he had the victory as out the door he trod!
To Chorus

Then came the day when Joseph, once young was now a man
 He stood before the Pharaoh, and was prince o'er all the land
 He earned this place of honour, and took it now with style
 For God had kept His promise, to bless us through each trial
To Chorus

But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

How to memorize God's Word...

Memorize each verse using the following pattern:

- Read the verse out-loud no less than 5 times, every time you get a chance – while waiting in line for dinner, or while combing/brushing your hair, or while getting ready for bed
- Make sure you set out to memorize the word of God, word-perfect (don't leave out any words)
- Have someone check you before you attempt to quote it to a Record Keeper
- After you have memorized a verse, make sure that you go back and review each previous verse you already memorized because someone may test you on your memory and if not satisfactory, you may lose points!
- You will be surprised how much you can remember if you will just TRY.

3. Both of their brethren hated them (37:4; Jn 15:24,25; 1:10,11; Mt 21:33-41)
4. All our sheaves will make obeisance to Jesus' sheaf (37:7; Philp 2:6-12)
5. Both are questioned, "Shalt thou indeed reign over us?" (37:11; Jn 7:4,5; Lk 19:14)

7. The father sends both Joseph and JESUS unto his brethren (37:13,14; Jn 17:18)
8. Both Joseph and Jesus willingly go (37:13)
9. Both Joseph and Jesus have to go extra miles (37:15-17; Lk 19:10)
10. The brothers did not receive either of them when they came (37:18; Jn 1:11)
11. The brethren conspire to kill both of them (37:18; Lk 20:13,14)
12. The brethren conspire to lie about the death of both (37:20)
13. Reuben tries to save Joseph (as did Nicodemus, 37:22; Jn 7:50,51)
14. They stripped him of his coat (37:23; Mt 27:28)
15. They cast him into a pit where no water was (37:24; Jn 19:38)
16. They SOLD him for twenty pieces of silver (37:37:28; Mt 26:15) – Jesus, 30
17. They sold him into the hands of the Gentiles (the Egyptians, 37:36; Mt 27:1,2)
18. They blamed another cause for Joseph's death (37:31,32; Jn 19:6,16)
19. The father's love sent Joseph out to find his brethren – the Father's love sent down Jesus to the world (39:1)
20. The Lord was with Jesus in everything He did (39:2)as He was with Joseph
21. God made everything that Jesus and Joseph do to prosper (39:3)
22. Jesus served everybody, but most of all, His Father (39:4)
23. The Lord blessed the Jews because of Jesus being around (39:5)
24. Jesus was a goodly person (of good character), and was well favoured by everyone (39:6)
25. Jesus was tempted in all points like as we are (39:7)
26. Jesus never sinned (39:8)

28. It cost Jesus everything to do right (39:12)
29. This world is not finished with trying to hurt Jesus (39:13-20)
30. The casting into prison is in type like going to Paradise – there Jesus preached to the captives (39:20; 1Pet 3:19)
31. All that were in Paradise were committed to Jesus power and authority (Eph 4:8; Mt 16:18)
32. Although Joseph was innocent, he was numbered with the transgressors. Compare what Isaiah recorded about Jesus, Isa 53:12, to the events recorded about Joseph.
33. Upon seeing that the butler and the baker were sad, Joseph interceded for them and interpreted their dreams. In so doing Joseph was a blessing to one and a judge to the other. Did Jesus intercede for two transgressors? Was He a blessing to one and a judge to the other? See Luke 23:39-43.
34. Joseph was bound in prison, Gen. 40:3. He was the innocent, falsely accused, accused by his brothers, accused by his old friends, and he opened not his mouth to say anything in his defense. Read Isaiah 53 with the plight of Joseph in mind.
35. The Bible records that the chief butler forgot about Joseph, Gen. 40:23. Of whom are we reminded when we study the forgetfulness of the butler?

I. Introduction

Counsellor's Edition

MAIN SUMMARY:

1. First, the kids need to understand that as Christians, we should serve the Lord.
2. They need to see that serving the Lord is a work of love, not senseless drudgery that we owe Him. He has forgiven us of the sins of our past, has saved us from hell in eternity, and has saved us from the awful consequences that we would have endured if we had continued living our sinful lives and not been saved. We should be excited about this and WANT to serve Him wholeheartedly.
3. One of the first steps to serving the Lord is developing good habits. God cannot entrust us with greater tasks when we have yet to fulfil the simple daily ones.
 - a. Good habits do not come naturally. We need make a purposeful decision to do them, and follow through with that decision when we don't feel like it. Feelings always change.
 - b. Often, old, bad habits must be changed. In order to do this, we must replace a bad habit with a good one.
 - c. The kids should be encouraged by stories of different Bible characters who had good habits, and warned by characters who had bad ones.
4. Once these actions and attitudes are habits, we will not have to struggle so hard with those things, and we will then be able to focus on facing the greater struggles and temptations that come our way.
5. The kids need to see that it's important to put these good habits in place NOW, while they are young. As they grow older, their choices will only become more difficult, and bad habits will become harder to overcome.
6. The kids should finish the day knowing WHY we go to all the trouble to work on these habits.
 - a. Our life should be about serving the Lord. He is all that truly matters and what we do for him will be what lasts. Our service will result in the furthering of the witness of the gospel, which ultimately results in the salvation of souls!
 - b. We will receive rewards in heaven for our service to the Lord.
 - c. If we love the Lord, we will want Him to be pleased with us. He is pleased when we do as he commands.

- I. Morning Devotion – Being a Servant for God – Joseph Serves the Lord (Gen 39) -Discuss Joseph's slavery and how he served the Lord despite the circumstances he was in. Get input and ideas about difficult circumstances and situations that we Christians may face, then talk about how we can still serve the Lord in those circumstances through wholeheartedness, a servant's heart, and bearing one another's burdens.

II. Morning Teaching Lesson: A Christian's Habits -

- A. CHILDREN'S TEACHER – Ruth O'Sullivan
-Explain what habits are, show Biblical examples of people who had good habits and bad habits. (Joseph and others) Talk about good habits that these kids need to develop in their homes and at school and with their friends. Make sure they also realize that habits are not formed by acting on what we FEEL like doing. Explain that the only way to change a bad habit is replace it with a good one. After a few examples, give a bad habit and ask for help in coming up with ways to change it.
- B. TEEN TEACHER – Jerome Pittman
-Discuss habits. Get input about bad habits that we all fall into. Ask about good habits that the kids do, or should do. Use Joseph and other Bible characters to demonstrate the benefit of good habits, and then give examples of how good habits can help these kids. Go back to discuss the bad habits that were mentioned, and add some others they might have missed. Give examples of ways to overcome those habits, primarily by replacing with good habits. Emphasize that habits can't be created by doing what we FEEL like doing. Help them through the thought process so that when they recognize other bad habits, they can think of ways to fight them.

III. Afternoon Preaching (Lam 3:27) – Why Life is Hard When We Are Young-
Dan Pero

-The kids will learn that they may be going through difficult times, but God uses those times to strengthen them so that they will be able to face the things that come later in life.

IV. Evening Message – The WORK of a Christian's Life (Pr 16:7; Eph 2:10) –
Pleasing the Lord, in all things! – Declan Flannagan

-The kids will be challenged to serve the Lord in any and every situation, no matter how bleak it may be. God blesses such service when it is done for him.

Tuesday Evening Sermon Notes

Pleasing the Lord – Proverbs 16:7

Declan Flanagan

MAIN SUMMARY:

1. The kids need to know that every soul is valuable to God, because we're His creation. However, God wants us to be even more valuable by being usable.
2. The way that God makes us usable for him is by sending us through trials and temptations. When we withstand each of those trials and temptations, we grow stronger and are then able to face even greater challenges.
3. This cycle of temptation and growth builds character and results in maturity.
4. By the end of the day, the kids need to know that the way to overcome temptation is to:
 - a. Ask the Lord for strength
 - b. Set up barriers beforehand. Anticipate times, places, and situations where temptation will be and AVOID them!
 - c. Temptation cannot always be avoided, and the pull of temptation is fast and STRONG. The kids must decide beforehand what they're going to do when faced with a particular temptation so that when the time comes they can make the right choices.
5. The kids should purpose to be men and women of integrity, who will make the right choices and live uprightly in order to please God.

I. Morning Devotion – Joseph's Price

-Look at these passages about the value of Joseph. Look at what made Joseph valuable, his character. Talk about how his character was developed in the situations. He went through. Go through the verses showing that God is looking for more people of character like Joseph, and how these kids can be those people.

II. Morning Lesson – Facing Potiphar's Wife – Handling Temptation

1. CHILDREN'S TEACHER – Deirdre Finn

- A lesson about how Joseph was brought to Egypt and was tempted by Potiphar's wife. Talk about the difficulty of facing that temptation –David, Solomon, and Samson all fell into it, and they were some of the mightiest men to ever live. But then look at how Joseph handled that temptation and therefore escaped. Bring that into everyday life and talk about how we must flee temptation, and turn from it as soon as it shows up.

2. TEEN TEACHER – David O'Brian

- A lesson giving the storyline of Joseph so far: how he got to the position he was in, and then of the temptation of Potiphar's wife. Discuss the dangerous power of temptation to sexual sin by showing the different mighty men of the Bible who had God with them that still fell into it. Make sure the kids know they are not immune to it just because they may be a good kid. Look at Joseph's response to that temptation, and challenge the kids to follow that example.

III. Afternoon Preaching – More than Conquerors! What temptations are out there today, and how to defeat them-Declan Flanagan

- The kids will be challenged to fight temptation God's way, because he knows what's best. They will be motivated to fight it because it's easier to stay out of it than fix the problems that result from it.

IV. Evening Message – Drawing Some Lines in Your Life!!!-Ronnie Smith

-The kids will be taught about the dangers of a lot of the serious sins that they are facing in the world every day. They'll be challenged to resist those temptations to stay clean and pure in a wicked world by drawing Biblical lines ahead of time and purposing not to cross them.

Wednesday Evening Sermon Notes

Drawing Lines in Your Life
Ronnie Smith

MAIN SUMMARY:

1. The kids will first learn what wisdom is, and that it is not something that everyone has naturally.
2. They will learn wisdom comes from God, from correction, and from our parents.
3. The kids will then see how wisdom can be used. They will learn that being wise will enable them to be good leaders by looking at the life of Joseph and the many positions of leadership that he held.
4. The kids will then learn that good leaders are faithful, even in difficult times. Joseph was an excellent leader, but was a slave and imprisoned while he was leader. Nevertheless, God honoured his faithfulness and blessed him.
5. To close the day, the kids will have it all tied together. God has a plan for their life and something He's calling them to. They need to yield to that and let God work. God will supply the wisdom to enable them to be good leaders wherever He calls them if they will simply remain faithful in serving Him.

I. Morning Devotion – the Value of Godly Wisdom - What Wisdom and Right Goals is All About

Discuss the passages about wisdom and see where it comes from and what fruits it brings. Talk about its value in becoming a leader, and how Joseph exhibited wisdom in his leadership.

II. Morning Lesson – Wise Leaders – What it is like when the Godly are in Charge - Joseph uses his wisdom in leadership1. CHILDREN'S TEACHER – Joy Barley

- This lesson will talk about leadership and how all leaders have an effect, whether good or bad. Show Joseph's leadership positions and how they grew step by step. Talk about why they grew -because Joseph was serving the Lord and not self. Challenge these kids to be setting the Christ-like example instead of following bad or worldly examples.

2. TEEN TEACHER – Ronnie Smith

-This lesson will discuss the good and bad effects of leadership, based on what kind of leader is in place. Show how Joseph progressed because he was serving the Lord and not self. Draw the parallel between his life and the teens' lives. Challenge them to be leaders in their churches and in their schools, and to be good leaders who are following Christ, because they want others to do the same.

V. Afternoon Preaching – God Honours Faithfulness-Jerome Pittman

-The kids will be encouraged to stay faithful to the call that God has given them. God called Joseph to service, and he did what was right, but went to prison. He stayed faithful though even there, and God blessed him for it and finally brought him out. We can't outthink God we just need to trust Him and do as He says.

VI. Evening Message – Don't Fail God's Call for Your Life!!!-Craig Ledbetter

The kids will be challenged to be willing to yield their lives to Christ and seek His will, and then follow it.

Don't Fail God's Calling

MAIN SUMMARY:

1. Once yielded to Christ; there are still things that can hinder us from serving the Lord. Today the kids will learn about one of the greatest obstacles to service, bitterness, and how to overcome it with forgiveness.
2. They will learn that forgiveness isn't just forgetting about something over time, it is deliberately choosing not to bring it up or dwell on it.
3. They need to understand that God always forgives us, so we should always forgive others. It doesn't matter how many times they offend us and no matter how great the hurt.
4. The kids will see that often those who hurt us the most and the deepest are our family members. But they will see from Joseph and his brothers that God can help us to forgive even those great hurts.
5. The kids will learn about the stumbling blocks to forgiveness
 - a. Pride
 - b. trying to do it on our own.
6. They must realize that the result of unforgiveness is bitterness; and they must realize that bitterness grows into every area of life, consumes a person, and destroys their ability to serve the Lord or be happy.
7. To finish the week, they will once again be taken back to the example of God's unlimited forgiveness. They will leave knowing that God has a plan for them that they must purpose to follow. However, they will sometimes fail in that mission. When that happens, they must repent and ask for forgiveness and God will gladly give it to them and help them to return to the path where he wants them. Because they are the recipients of such great forgiveness, they need to in turn extend that to everyone around them.

I. Morning Devotion - What is forgiveness?

Discuss with the kids what forgiveness is and where it comes from by looking at the passages given. Talk about things that are hard to forgive, and how it's hard to forgive repeatedly. Then look back at God's example of forgiveness and see how it is unlimited when we do not harbour unforgiveness in our hearts.

II. Morning Lesson – Joseph Forgives His Brothers

1. CHILDREN'S TEACHER – Lydia O'Sullivan
 -This lesson will talk about the different things that Joseph endured from his brothers and other situations, but yet, he never became bitter. Talk about the difficulty of forgiving our family members because often they are the ones who hurt us most deeply. Look at Joseph's forgiving spirit despite his circumstances. Look at the example of Jesus and the forgiveness he gives, and then talk about how we are to be like Christ and follow that example.

2. TEEN TEACHER – Dan Pero

III. Afternoon Preaching – Why Is It So Hard To Forgive?-Craig Ledbetter

The kids will see what obstacles there are to forgiveness, and they will learn how and why they should overcome them.

IV. Evening Message – God's Greatest Gift – Forgiveness!!!-Jerome Pittman

The kids will be once again reminded of all that God has forgiven them, and how that forgiveness is something they can rest assured of. They will know that they have this forgiveness despite their failings, and all they must do is repent and ask the Lord for that forgiveness.
