The Disasters

Down in a pit young Joseph thought, things couldn't get much worse
But as a slave and far from home, his life just seemed a curse
Yet Joseph trusted that his God, was working all things right
He'd slowly make a man of him, who'd stand through every fight

The Temptation

O! Potiphar's wife, she knew too well, how to bring this young man down
She'd lure, and tempt, and pressurize, till Joseph dropped his crown
"How can I do this thing", he said, "and sin against my God"
Over sin he had the victory as out the door he trod!

The Reward - Joseph becoming prince over all of Egypt

Then came the day when Joseph, once young was now a man
He stood before the Pharaoh, and was prince o'er all the land
He earned this place of honour, and took it now with style
For God had kept His promise, to bless us through each trial
